CLUB EVENING – MAY

Our Speaker...

Roger Stirling Smith gave the assembled members a guided insight into the business planing process with a professional ohp slide presentation.

He highlighted the key steps that every plan should contain and supported this with a 5-page handout to help members to review and “tweak” their own business plans to keep them alive and relevant. It may well be that some of us have not visited our business plans for some time!

There followed the usual enthusiastic questions and discussion about the evening’s topic.

During that discussion, it became apparent that Roger has recently been spending more of his time helping people to sell their business. (Anyone read the E-myth by Michael Gerber?). That fact has already helped one of the editor’s clients and will earn Roger some commission in the fullness of time.

You can contact Roger on 01746 769301.

CLUB MATTERS

Lichfield Business Village ...

is the name by which the new managed office units at Staffs University Lichfield Centre (SULC) will be known. It consists of 18 furnished office units with each office also equipped with at least one modern PC and permanent connection to the Internet. The domain name entitled lichfieldbusinessvillage.com has also been obtained for use by the residents.

These new offices are available from July, are reasonably priced and can be obtained on short-term contract if required.

For further information, contact Chris Birch or Kate Lincoln on 01543 301100
